

Ephesians 1:15-23
Paul prayed that believers would both _____ God's truth and understand how to _____ that truth.

Ephesians 1:15-23
The power God directed towards us to secure and maintain His blessings is _____ and cannot be _____.

Paul prayed that believers would see more clearly the real-life implications of His _____ on us, _____ for us, and His _____ in us.

*Paul was praying that the Ephesian believers would fully experience the reality of the work that Christ had done on their behalf through their choosing, adoption, redemption, forgiveness, wisdom, understanding, sealing, and inheritance. This required the Holy Spirit to enable them to see more clearly the power of God available to them.
As His power is directed towards all who believe, let this be our prayer for clarity for ourselves and each other, too.*
