

The Book of Hosea

UNQUENCHABLE UNQUENCHABLE

LOVE

Both Gomer and Israel looked for their fulfillment in _____ breaking their relationships with those who loved them dearly and would have to live with the consequences of their _____.

HOSEA 2:2-13

God pointed forward to a new era in which He would establish a brand-new covenant relationship with His people marked by _____, _____, and a mutually committed _____.

HOSEA 2:14-23

The Book of Hosea

UNQUENCHABLE UNQUENCHABLE

LOVE

Despite her flagrant and ongoing infidelity, Hosea paid the price to redeem Gomer out of her sin and permanently restored her back into loving relationship with himself, just as Yahweh promised to do in redeeming people to Himself.

HOSEA 3

Unfaithful Gomer had left her faithful husband to degrade herself with other men. Thinking she would gain all that she ever desired, she would find that she had instead lost everything. Her wayward desires ended up enslaving her in the end. Her only recourse was to return to her husband who had never stopped loving her. Hosea would demonstrate his love for her through her redemption and his lifelong commitment to her good.

Unfaithful Israel had left her true husband to degrade herself with Baal. Thinking she would gain all that she ever desired, she would learn that she had instead lost everything. Her only recourse was to return to God, her faithful husband so as to again enjoy the blessings of a new covenant marriage. God would show His love to her once again united under the Messianic King experiencing all the goodness of truly knowing the Lord.